

Declaration of Integrity

I acknowledge that my signature on this Declaration of Integrity attests that I understand and certify that the following statements are true and correct.

As a Volunteer to the IIC and involved in the world of coaching with the IIC, I agree to continue to meet the requirements of Continued Professional Development.

I have read The IIC's Statement of Standards and Ethics as found on http://www.internationalinstituteofcoaching.org/standards\_and\_ethicsa.php

I undertake to comply with this statement, to honour the obligations it places upon me, and to act with integrity in all my dealings with the IIC, the coaching community, my coaching clients, and to the general public.

I agree to perform my duties as a Volunteer in line with the IIC's mission statement and vision statement.

To embody the IIC's key values as a coach and when representing the IIC.

If as a Volunteer I am found not to meet these requirements, I agree that the IIC in its sole discretion may hold me accountable for my conduct and that noncompliance may result in loss of my position as a volunteer and a loss of my membership of the IIC.

The process to verify this is defined in the Complaints Process found on http://www.internationalinstituteofcoaching.org/complaints\_procedure.php

I confirm that I have no adverse legal actions taken or pending against me as a coach or against my coaching business.
